FACTS ABOUT BLOOR LANSDOWNE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP (BLCF):

A Church with a vision.

Some 70 years ago, a group of believers embarked on a mission to bring the message of the gospel to the Bloor Lansdowne area in a relevant and meaningful way. The membership moved into a converted truck garage on Bloor Street near Lansdowne Avenue establishing the Church of the Crusaders.

Now seven decades later the church, now known as Bloor Lansdowne Christian Fellowship, continues to meet the challenges of actively preaching and practicing the message of the gospel in relevant and meaningful ways to the local community, such as BLCF Cafe, a weekly Community Dinner feeding 80-100 souls, run under the auspices of our church and a dedicated core of volunteers.

The Bible says that a church is not mortar, brick and wood, but the body of believers who gather together to worship, pray, sing, teach and celebrate God's path of salvation, through accepting Jesus Christ's sacrifice on the cross at Calvary.
