Matthew 14:13-21 (ESV) Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand
<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup> When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick. <sup>15</sup> Now when it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." <sup>16</sup> But Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." <sup>17</sup> They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." <sup>18</sup> And he said, "Bring them here to me." <sup>19</sup> Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>20</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. <sup>21</sup> And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Deuteronomy 11:13-17 (ESV)

<sup>13</sup> "And if you will indeed obey my commandments that I command you today, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup> he <sup>[a]</sup> will give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, that you may gather in your grain and your wine and your oil. <sup>15</sup> And he will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full. <sup>16</sup> Take care lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them; <sup>17</sup> then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and he will shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain, and the land will yield no fruit, and you will perish quickly off the good land that the LORD is giving you.

Psalm 104:13-16 (ESV)

<sup>13</sup> From your lofty abode you water the mountains;
the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work.

<sup>14</sup> You cause the grass to grow for the livestock and plants for man to cultivate,

that he may bring forth food from the earth

<sup>15</sup> and wine to gladden the heart of man,

oil to make his face shine and bread to strengthen man's heart.

<sup>16</sup> The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly,
the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.

Proverbs 23:22-25 (ESV)

<sup>22</sup> Listen to your father who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

<sup>24</sup> The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice;
he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him.

<sup>25</sup> Let your father and mother be glad;
let her who bore you rejoice.

John 2:1-12 (ESV) The Wedding at Cana

<sup>2</sup> On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>3</sup> Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. <sup>4</sup> When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." <sup>5</sup> And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." <sup>6</sup> His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

<sup>7</sup> Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. <sup>8</sup> Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>9</sup> And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. <sup>10</sup> When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." <sup>11</sup> This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

<sup>12</sup> After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers<sup>[b]</sup> and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

Footnotes: a. John 2:6 Greek two or three measures (metrētas); a metrētēs was about 10 gallons or 35 liters
b. John 2:12 Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated "brothers") refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to brothers or to brothers and sisters

2 Kings 4:1-7 (ESV) Elisha and the Widow's Oil

<sup>4</sup> Now the wife of one of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves." <sup>5</sup> And Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me; what have you in the house?" And she said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." <sup>6</sup> Then he said, "Go outside, borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels and not too few." <sup>7</sup> Then go in and shut the door behind yourself and your sons and pour into all these vessels. And when one is full, set it aside." <sup>8</sup> So she went from him and shut the door behind herself and her sons. And as she poured they brought the vessels to her. <sup>9</sup> When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another." Then the oil stopped flowing. <sup>10</sup> She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on the rest."
